£670,000 Freehold

A stylish and substantial individual four bedroom detached house with a contemporary interior.

Benefiting from generous proportions throughout with a particularly impressive open plan kitchen/diner/living space with Velux windows, bi-fold doors and an island, this excellent property will appeal to a wide variety of potential purchasers but is a fabulous family home.

In brief, the well presented interior comprises: Spacious entrance hallway, shower room, open plan kitchen/diner/living space, snug/TV room, office and utility to the ground floor. Rising to the first floor is a landing with useful storage cupboards, an impressive master bedroom with en-suite and fully vaulted ceilings with Velux windows, three further good sized double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside the property occupies a generous corner plot with a driveway providing ample car standing to the front with a detached garage beyond and landscaped and low maintenance enclosed gardens to the rear and side.

Occupying an established and desirable residential location, convenient for local schools, shops, parks and excellent transport links, this individual property is well worthy of viewing.
