For example, there is a bespoke fitted kitchen by Osbornes of Ilkeston which has a delightful breakfast area and an archway leading through to a large conservatory enjoying aspects over the beautifully presented rear gardens.

Situated on Quarry Road within Little Hallam, the property is set back from the road with an attractive enclosed forecourt with electric gated in and out driveway providing parking for up to three vehicles and a single garage. The rear gardens are impeccably maintained and offer a mature and colourful back drop to the property and include a recently built timber summerhouse.

Little Hallam is a small, residential suburb on the outskirts of the market town of Ilkeston and the area enjoys local amenities including primary school, regular bus service and, for those who enjoy the outdoors, open countryside and the nearby Derbyshire villages of Stanton by Dale and Dale Abbey are within easy reach. If you are looking to commute, the A52 linking Nottingham and Derby, as well as Junction 25 of the M1 motorway is approximately a 10 minute drive away.
