

Brickyard
Stanley Common, Derbyshire DE7 6FR

A TWO BEDROOM MID TERRACED
COTTAGE.

Offers Over £170,000 Freehold

Tucked away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life can be found this charming two bedroom mid terraced cottage.

This interesting and slightly quirky period property offers surprisingly spacious accommodation accessed initial from the rear with entrance hall leading to open plan dining kitchen with modern units and some built-in appliances. There is a peaceful snug located off the kitchen which is currently used as a home office. Beyond the kitchen can be found the living room which enjoys a lot of natural light supplied by large windows and double glazed French doors which open through to the main gardens which offer a delightful and generous space. The garden is fenced in to enhance privacy with decked area and a section laid to artificial lawn (for ease of maintenance).

The two bedrooms are located on the first floor, as well as a generous four piece family bathroom. The property is centrally heated from a combination boiler and double glazed throughout.

Accessed from an unadopted road, The Brickyard is a courtyard which backs onto open countryside. Far from being isolated, the property sits in the heart of Stanley Common, a small Derbyshire village with convenience store, local primary school of other community facilities. The village sits to the West of the market town of Ilkeston with road networks leading to Derby and Nottingham, as well as the M1 motorway for further afield.

Ready to move into, this property would make a fantastic first purchase and an early internal viewing comes highly recommended.
