

Church Lane,
Attenborough, Nottingham
NG9 6AS

£795,000 Freehold

A charming and totally individual, four-bedroom detached cottage, tucked away off a private drive in the heart of Attenborough.

Having been extended and remodelled over the years, the original part of this beautiful cottage is believed to date back to 1790 and has since been transformed into a most appealing living space, with a wealth of original character and charm, seamlessly blended with contemporary style.

In brief the spacious and versatile interior comprises: entrance porch, kitchen, pantry, dining room/sitting area, lounge, two shower rooms, office, and sitting room/TV room. Rising to the first floor are four bedrooms and a separate bathroom.

Outside the property sits in the middle of a generous plot with mature and well-manicured landscaped gardens to all sides, and a detached brick and tile garage with drive to the rear.

Offered to the market for the first time since 1980, this fabulous property nestled in the conservation area, with St. Mary's church and the nature reserve beyond, is a wonderful opportunity that simply must be viewed to be truly appreciated.
