An instantly attractive bay fronted Victorian end terraced house.

Situated on this attractive tree-line road, this period property offers surprisingly spacious accommodation which offers a welcoming and contemporary feel internally. Benefitting from gas fired central heating served from a combination boiler, with some more recently replaced contemporary radiators, and there is a feature fireplace to the living room.

Further features of this property include double glazed windows throughout, a generous first floor bathroom and a larger than expected rear garden with expansive lawn.

Located in a popular residential suburb within walking distance of local amenities, including schools, bus routes and convenience stores, as well as being within easy reach of Ilkeston town centre, Morrisons, Tesco and the train station. For those looking to commute, good road networks linking Nottingham, Derby and Junction 24 of the M1 motorway are within easy reach.

This property is the epitome of a first time home and an early internal viewing comes highly recommended.
