 Price Guide £300,000- £325,000

Located in the ever-popular area of Lenton, this striking three-bedroom semi-detached home forms part of what was once a grand Georgian family residence. Now tastefully divided into two elegant homes, this property retains an abundance of original character features that speak to its historic roots, while also offering modern comforts and an unbeatable location.

Stepping through the front door, you're welcomed into a decadent entrance hallway where original wooden panelling and solid herringbone flooring immediately set the tone. High ceilings and exquisite craftsmanship are evident throughout the home, with original solid wood doors, Gothic Swept Head windows with added interior glazing, and an original fireplace surround all lovingly preserved. There is also practical under-stair storage accessed from the hallway.

To the right, the large lounge is a wonderfully bright and inviting space, featuring twin Georgian windows that flood the room with natural light, a period fireplace setting, and soft carpeting for a homely feel. At the rear of the ground floor is the kitchen, which comes equipped with a range of white goods and benefits from an adjoining utility room. There is also a downstairs W/C and side door access leading back out to the driveway - ideal for daily convenience.

Climbing the graceful U-bend staircase, you'll find the family bathroom on the mid-landing, thoughtfully designed as a wet room with a modern three-piece suite. Continuing up to the main landing, natural light pours in through a large original window, illuminating a spacious landing that leads to three generous double bedrooms. The master bedroom includes fitted storage, and all rooms offer ample space, character, and charm. The loft can be accessed for additional storage needs.

Outside, the property enjoys a private garden, perfect for relaxing or entertaining, along with the rare advantage of off-street parking and a detached garage. Mature greenery adds to the peaceful feel, offering a retreat right in the heart of the city.

This home's location is as impressive as its interior. Situated within easy reach of both the University of Nottingham and Nottingham Trent University, and just minutes from Queen's Medical Centre, it's ideal for academics, professionals or families alike. Public transport is plentiful, with both tram and bus stops nearby providing direct routes into the city centre and Nottingham train station in under 15 minutes. For green space lovers, the expansive grounds of Wollaton Park are quite literally on your doorstep.

This is a truly special property that blends timeless Georgian elegance with everyday practicality. With character in abundance and a location that's hard to beat, this home is not to be missed.
