£225,000 Freehold

PRICE REDUCTION

The property has been freshly decorated throughout and benefits from a comprehensive refurbishment, including a brand-new kitchen, brand-new bathroom, new carpets throughout, new gas boiler with updated plumbing, full new radiators, and a full rewire, while still retaining many original Victorian features.

Constructed of brick elevations under a tiled roof, the accommodation is arranged over two levels and boasts diverse Victorian features including high ceilings, decorative coving, deep skirting boards, large windows, and a stunning bay-fronted lounge, creating bright and spacious living areas. The ground floor comprises an entrance porch, entrance hallway, bay-fronted living room, dining room, newly fitted kitchen, ground floor WC, and a rear lobby/utility area with fitted storage.

Further benefits include a useful cellar, ideal for storage, along with loft space offering additional storage or future potential (subject to relevant consents).

To the first floor are three good-sized bedrooms and a brand-new family bathroom, all continuing the period feel with generous proportions and excellent natural light.

Externally, the property benefits from an enclosed rear garden with rear access, providing practicality and convenience.

Located just a stone's throw from Sherwood's thriving high street, offering a wide range of local shops, cafés, restaurants, and excellent transport links. The location provides easy access to Nottingham City Centre, surrounding areas, and is within close proximity to Nottingham City Hospital, making it an ideal purchase for both investors and owner-occupiers alike. An early viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the size, character, and standard of accommodation on offer.

Offered to the market with the benefit of NO UPWARD CHAIN, this is an excellent turnkey investment opportunity or characterful home in a highly sought-after location. Contact the office today to arrange your viewing.
