GUIDE PRICE £160,000 - £165,000

Bursting with period charm, this beautifully presented two bedroom end-terrace home is located in the popular Bulwell area of NG6 and offers spacious accommodation along with a generous west-facing garden.

The property is bay-fronted and set behind a gated front garden, with an external porch area leading to the entrance. Upon entering, you are welcomed into the front lounge, featuring a bay window, attractive fireplace with surround, new flooring and UPVC front door and windows throughout the property.

To the rear is the second reception room, originally the dining room and currently used as such. This space retains high ceilings, large windows and characterful period features, and provides access to the door leading down to the double cellar, offering excellent additional storage.

The galley kitchen is positioned at the rear and benefits from fitted white goods, boiler access and leads through to a separate utility room with space for a washer, dryer and freestanding fridge.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, with the second bedroom benefitting from fitted storage. Completing the accommodation is a large three-piece family bathroom with additional fitted storage.

Externally, the property enjoys gated side access leading to a large, landscaped west-facing rear garden, ideal for afternoon and evening sun.

Combining period features with modern improvements, this charming home offers generous living space and outdoor potential in a convenient and well-established location.
