

Bramcote Road,
Beeston, Nottingham
NG9 1DW

£375,000 Freehold

A beautifully presented attractive 1930's three-bedroom semi-detached house.

Having been significantly upgraded by the current vendors including external insulation, replacement glazing and widening the drive, this excellent house has retained a wealth of original character and charm, yet also has contemporary feel.

In brief the bright and appealing interior comprises entrance hall, dining room, kitchen, wall hallway with utility cupboard and WC off, and through lounge. Rising to the first floor are three good sized bedrooms, and a bathroom.

Outside the property has a drive providing ample car standing and an enclosed well-maintained rear garden with a sunny south facing.

Occupying an enviable position within north-west Beeston, a short walk from the town centre, and well placed for excellent transport links, schools and a wide variety of other facilities, this ready to move into property is well worthy of viewing.
